

RIWF 11th edition: London, Thursday 7th July 2022

The eleventh edition of the Real Italian Wine & Food (RIWF) will take place at the Chelsea Football club in London on Thursday 7th July 2022. The organisers are very much looking forward to an edition which will showcase some great Italian wines as well food produce. As always, the event will be divided into two different sections (wine and food) and it will be open only to trade professionals and press. Like every year we are confident we will bring to London some exquisite produce from small and medium size producers.
